

Meet Rob Thomas

Rob Thomas is the Founder and President of RobThomasUSA, and he is the creator of the Rob Thomas Method (RTM) of Networking and Networking in Diners. Rob is an entrepreneur, the author of Who Do You NEED to Meet? and is a dynamic public speaker.

Rob works with business professionals to help them develop their networking skills to help them achieve business and personal success. Through his unique brand of networking, built on the adage “It’s not what you know, but who you know”, Rob teaches and coaches business owners, senior executive and sales professionals how to identify, maximize, refine and nurture your network of contacts. Rob lives in Milford, CT with his wife Jen and his two sons, Christopher and Luke.

A few interesting facts about Rob. First, he can’t sing or play the guitar, but he did work at Disney World and is an Eagle Scout.